The 1st home game for Albany's Pop Warner football team will be played against Benecia, at 1:30 p.m. this Saturday at Feeney Field. The public is invited to attend and cheer the home team.

Incidentally the team (called the Bobcats) won their very first game played, when they beat El Sobrante with a score of 6-0. Congratulations, and keep on going fellows.

And speaking of our young people — we hear that approximately 450 Albany residents turned out for the annual Albany Little League awards dinner last Friday night.

Much to his surprise, long-time youth sportsman, Del Wisenor, was presented with a beautiful plaque for his "total dedication" to the League for the past 16 years. It couldn't have happened to a nicer guy!

Mr. and Mrs. Si Gershenson hosted a reception last Sunday, in honor of Albany's current AFS student from Germany, Marianne Buge.

Special guests included members of the Albany High School AFS Club and the local chapter of the American Field Service. Those attending were greatly impressed with Marianne's outgoing and friendly personality, which is reminiscent of last year's AFS guest, Harumi Ban. Marianne enthusiastically declared: "This is going to be the best year of my life."

And another enthusiastic Albany citizen this week was Councilman George Hein, who reported to everyone Monday night about his "fabulous" trip on BART on opening day.

The public is being invited to the annual Patio Party, sponsored by the Elm Branch of Children's Hospital Medical Center on Sunday, Sept. 24.

The event will take place at the beautiful Ramona Avenue home of Muriel and Jerry Blank, from 3 to 7 p.m. Tickets are $1.50 each, and as a special bonus, those attending will be offered some very delectable hors d'oeuvres made by Elm branch members.

Tomorrow will be ladies' night at the regular weekly Albany Lions' Club meeting at Serb's. Special guest speaker will be Harry Hallenbeck, representing the architect firm which is planning the Albany Hill apartment complex.

Further details on the Albany JC's Pop Warner benefit dance to be held Saturday, Sept. 30 — dancing will be to a 4-piece live band.

Important Decision for Albany

By Berl Hartman

This is the first in a series of articles explaining the issues in the Albany School Construction Bond. The Bond will be on the November ballot as Propositions H and I.

As the doors of the Albany schools open this year, a city with a tradition of quality education finds itself in the midst of an educational crisis. For the first time in Albany history, schools are on double sessions. Three separate schools and over 1,500 children are all using the campus of Albany High. Marin school and half of Cornell will soon be boarded up to await their demolition.

The situation is being felt by nearly every Albany school child in one way or another. To 8th graders at the High School, it means getting up while it's still dark so that they can be in school at 7:00 a.m. and leaving school at 12 noon. Many teenagers will have nothing to do all afternoon. To some 5-year-olds, it means walking 1 1/2 miles to a basement kindergarten class at the High School. Our 10-year-old children will be home until 12:15 p.m., and it will often be dark by 5:30 when they return home. Some parents have chosen to take their children out of our schools and a few have even moved rather than subject their children to these handicaps.

Albany's problems came to light about a year ago when a team of engineers from the State Office of Architecture and Construction found that Marin School and half of Cornell would be structurally unsafe in the event of an earthquake. Under the provisions of a state law known as the Field Act, such schools had to be abandoned by 1975. The School Board decided, in view of the danger to our children's safety, to close the unsafe schools this fall, and so the double sessions were started.

This, of course, was only a temporary solution to a desperate problem. In addition, the Board appointed a representative non-partisan Citizens' Committee to recommend a plan of action. In nearly a year's time, the Committee was able to make a thorough study of every aspect of the problem.

The first possibility the Committee investigated was that of repairing the old buildings. Unfortunately, they found that this would be virtually impossible. Since the problem was in the structure of the buildings themselves, repairing would very soon come to resemble rebuilding. The cost of the necessary reconstruction was found to be nearly equal to the cost of entirely new buildings. Because of the nature of the problem and the provisions of state law, the decision to rebuild our schools could not be avoided.

That is why many responsible members of the community are giving their support to propositions H and I. They will soon be asking for yours.

Future articles in this series will explore in greater detail the plan that was adopted, the financing, and the effect upon the community.

The Mail Bag

The views expressed in the following letters are those of the individual writers, and do not reflect, in any way, those of this newspaper.

Editor, the Times:

The Albany Chamber of Commerce reaffirms their position in favor of the 2500 unit apartment complex proposed by the Interstate Development Corporation, and wishes to present the attached petition signed by several business people of Albany, who firmly believe this project, to be built over a period of years, will be beneficial for the majority of the entire community.

Many of the signers of this petition have investments in Albany between 500,000.00 and 1,000,000.00 dollars, with property and sales taxes being paid to the City, County and State of several thousand dollars each. Their number of employed total in the hundreds.

These people have established their businesses in Albany by design, not by accident, but because they want to be here. It is important for their future existence and progress to have some hope and reasonable expectation of growing with Albany.

This proposal by Interstate Development Corporation would provide such a probability, and at the same time would greatly increase sales taxes to the City and County, while reducing property taxes for all property owners.

We again solicit your favorable consideration toward the application from Interstate now before the City Council and the Planning and Zoning Commission.

Sincerely,
HAROLD G. DENHAM
Manager

We the undersigned, being residents and/or taxpayers of the City of Albany, do hereby endorse the 2500 unit project proposed by Interstate General Corporation, to be built on the western side of Albany Hill, and encourage the City Council and Planning and Zoning Commission to approve same as being in the best interests of our City:

Editor, the Times:

This is a copy of a letter I sent to the Albany City Council:

Gentlemen:

What will the quality of life be in the proposed 2500 unit apartment complex? How can the apartments be pleasant to live in with the traffic sounds outside?

Any attempt to open a window will be met with excessive noise from the freeway and the railroad tracks. Don't we have a responsibility to the people who would live in this complex?

Wouldn't their health and welfare be seriously affected if the developer is allowed to proceed with this project? His own impact study should tell him this.

I refer to the report "Environmental Quality Evaluation: Noise" by Bolt Beranek and Newman, consultants in acoustics. They say, "In many regions of the site it won't be possible to meet H.U.D. criteria of acceptability for interior noise in rooms if open windows and a line of sight exposure to freeway exists at point of observation." Most of the buildings would have a direct line of sight exposure to the freeway. Since the noise level increases dramatically with height, the tenants on the upper floors would not want to open their windows at all. This defeats the purpose of the "Uniform Building Code" in that all required windows must be openable for ventilation. If noise prevents use of the windows, this apartment complex will affect the health and welfare of the tenants. Doesn't this suggest that the feasibility of the project should be reconsidered?

Respectfully yours,
JON MATHESON

Bond Voters Meet Tonight

The Albany School Bond Committee's regular weekly meeting was held last Wednesday evening. Under Jerome Blank's chairmanship more items related to getting the campaign started were discussed with publicity getting the lion's share of discussion. A budget was passed for publicity.

Albany faces two related issues on the November 7 general ballot, Propositions H & I. The next meeting of the committee will feature Mr. Carl Conti of Walnut Creek, who led a successful bond campaign in that city. All interested are urged to attend the meeting at the Cornell cafeteria at 7:45 tonight, Wednesday, Sept. 13.

Patriotic Talk For High 12

According to Sam Dows, program chairman for the Albany High Twelve Club, General Douglas MacArthur's "Duty-Honor-Country" speech is one of the classic patriotic addresses of the century.

A recording of the address, which was MacArthur's acceptance speech upon receipt of the Sylvanus Thayer Award in 1962 at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, will be presented at the High Twelve Club's Sept. 22 meeting, to be held at Kirby's in the El Cerrito Plaza. The presentation will be a feature of Patriotism Week, as decreed by the California Grand Lodge of Masons.

A commentary on the address will be made by General Dwight F. Johns (Retired), a 1916 graduate of West Point, a member of the U.S. Engineer Corps, and an instructor at the Academy from 1918 to 1921.

Brig. Gen. Johns, who was with the Division of Engineering in San Francisco for two years prior to his retirement in 1950, now lives in Piedmont, where he is very active in civic affairs.

Following another lengthy hearing Monday evening, concerning the granting of a use permit to Interstate General Corporation to construct a 2500 unit apartment complex on the western side of Albany Hill, the Albany City Council voted to continue the public hearing for another week, until Monday, Sept. 18.

Most communications read at the Sept. 11 hearing appeared to favor the project and included ones from the Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce, and one from the Senior Chamber of Commerce, reaffirming their original stand, and containing the signatures of many business people who's investments in the City account for some $500,000 and $1,000,000 and result in many thousands of dollars being paid in sales taxes each year to the City, County and State, as well as many residents.

Those in opposition to the project included one from a resident of University Village, who encouraged the City to support Assemblyman John Miller's legislation to reimburse Albany for expenses incurred by that housing project, "rather than chasing after get-rich-quick schemes of a developer from Puerto Rico."

Another, from a Marin Avenue Couple, cited Albany's "small size" as one of its attributes, which should not be altered by the increase in population resulting from this development; while one from a couple residing on Cornell pleaded for Albany to "remain the way it is."

A lengthy letter from two Solano Avenue residents pointed out that "Albany Hill belongs to the environment of the whole Bay Area," and expressed the fear that this could be only the beginning of the "rape of Albany Hill."

Correspondence from Kenneth Forry, Albany School Superintendent, indicated that, in his opinion, "there are few, if any, disadvantages in the creation and development of unsightly and unproductive land into a complex that ultimately will strengthen the tax base."

"Just bond retirement alone," Forry noted, "would result in a decrease of the proposed tax for payment by about at least 25% when the completed Hill development is on the tax roll."

Following the reading of correspondence, the Council opened the hearing to the public. Harry Hallenbeck, representing Goetz, Hallenbeck and Goetz, architects for the project, presented the Council with an 8-page document of supplemental information in response to questions raised at previous public hearings.

A number of residents in the audience posed questions concerning the project which City Administrator, James Turner, said would be answered in a report being prepared by the City Staff, which would be available for the Council and the public by next Monday.

Questions included what would be the cost to the City for police and fire services to the complex; how much revenue must the City receive in order to make the project worthwhile; how much population could the Hill take; what advantages would the City gain beyond an increase of revenue, and can our schools add students without having to increase the teaching and administration staff and more school rooms?

Turner assured the audience that most of these questions had already been asked of the various city department heads, and would be answered in the up-coming report, which will be available to the public at City Hall, following its introduction at Monday night meeting.

Pierce Street residents again brought up the subject of a present traffic problem in the area, as well as a greatly increased problem which would result from the project. Jan Turner notes that application has been made over three years ago (to the State) for widening Pierce Street and for the installation of a signal at Pierce & Solano Avenue. These improvements will be made "whether or not Albany Hill is developed" according to the City Administrator. Plans for widening street will result in Pierce Street becoming the same as Portola Avenue, 40 feet from curb to curb to comfortably accommodate parking on both sides and to way traffic also.

Turner also told the audience that the apartment complex construction would be closely supervised not only by the City, but by members of the International Conference of Building Officials paid for by funds provided by the developer.

Council Action

By Dorothy McCain Eلسenius

Clyde Lombard, an Albany resident at 1247 Washington since 1926, was granted permission to fill in the parking strip in front of his property, by the Albany City Council at last Monday meeting.

Mr. Lombard requested the permission because due to his age (77 years) and physical condition (he has been under the doctor's care for the past 5 years), he could not properly care for the area. During Council discussion, Councilman Lew Howell remarked: "This has been a long time coming, and this gentleman certainly deserves it."

In other action Monday night the Council instructed City Attorney Larry Saler to prepare the necessary papers to proclaim October 28 as "National Walk to Development Day" and September as Volunteer Army Month. A public hearing date of Sept. 18 for the Yellow Cab Company of Alameda County's request for adjustment of Albany Cab rate and set an attorney-client session with Larry Saler for 10 p.m. next Monday evening, to discuss the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law in the action brought by Councilman Richard Clark against the Mayor and other City Councilmen with regards to Clark's appointment of Herbert Rubin to the Albany Planning and Zoning Commission.

Confusion reigned at the Oakland BART station opening day when the men's rest room door refused to open. The rest room doors are kept locked and can only be opened by a button operated by a BART attendant. The door refused to budge even after the attendant resorted to using a key, according to the news reported by a local radio station. Otherwise, things seemed to be well under control.

Golden Gateway Shares Classic
San Francisco's business folk won't be shut out of watching the action for the $54,000 Golden Gate Pacific Coast Tennis Classic at Golden Gate Fields.

Two matches each day will be played at San Francisco's Golden Gateway during the women's championship opening round and quarter final round matches Monday through Friday, September 18-22, and during the men's opening round and quarter final round matches Monday through Friday, September 25-29.

The Golden Gateway matches will be held at 12 noon and 5:30 p.m. daily with the Gateway Professional, Alan Skelton in charge of play.

Admission to each match will be $2.

The remaining matches will be held starting at 1 p.m. at Golden Gate Fields in Albany.

Tournament Director Larry King has planned for many of the stars of the Golden Gate Classic to make at least one appearance at the Gateway lunch time and after work matches, including Billie Jean King, Margaret Court, Jimmy Connors and Ilie Nastase.

While the San Francisco tennis complex is hosting two matches per day during the week, at least eight of the 10 courts at Golden Gate Fields are expected to be in service by more than 100 of the world's top pros and amateurs as they drive for the richest purse ever provided for a Northern California tennis attraction.

Admission to Golden Gate Fields for the complete afternoon weekdays will be $2.50 with tickets sold only at the courts each day.

What Your Eyes Will See - Your Heart Will Believe - Spiritual Card and Tea Reader

Reverend Anna Santos

GOD-GIVEN POWER OF PRAYER

There is no problem so great that she can't solve it. Tells you how to hold your job, when you have failed, and how to succeed. Calls your friends and enemies by name without asking a single word. Will tell you your troubles and what to do about them. Reunites the separated. Upon reaching womanhood and realizing that she had God-given power she has devoted a lifetime to this work. Guaranteed to remove evil influences and bad luck. One visit will convince you she is superior to any reader you have ever seen. Gives lucky days and lucky hands. Lifts you out of sorrow and darkness and starts you on the way to success and happiness. She is here for the first time in this vicinity - has just come from India - the land of miracles. You owe it to yourself to consult this gifted lady.
